

REVIEW OF WEEK IN SPORT WORLD

Joy Reigns in the Fandom of Five Cities in Virginia League Circuit.

RICHMOND LOSES FIRST

Big Leagues Have Bad Week of It, Rain and Snow Preventing Many Games.

BY JAMES L. WEST, Sporting Editor.

Unbounded joy reigns in the fanland of five cities in the Virginia League circuit. One might expect a little weeping and wailing in the sixth city, which, be it known, is Richmond, but about 3,000 fans saw the spectacle that has brought forth all of this joy elsewhere, and if there were any tear-bedimmed eyes in that crowd they must have been hidden beneath those new style peach bonnets that the women fans are wearing these days.

Richmond's Champion Colt had to lose sooner or later, and now, ere was that truth more fully realized than in Richmond. And not one of the hundreds who saw the Champs suffer their first defeat was very much surprised when it was all over. Those Roanoke Highlanders proved to be foes worthy the steel of any team in the league. They played a consistent fielding game, and did what Richmond was unable to do—bunt hits.

Pitcher Walter Boone deserves most of the credit for Richmond's defeat. The kind of ball that he pitched Saturday will win him games at any time and against most any team. He had clouds of smoke, his control was well-nigh perfect, and as for his batters, well, any one who didn't see them and really wants to know what they were like, need only to ask any one of the nine Richmonders who nearly broke their backs trying to connect with that sharp breaking out-top ball. On the second week of its championship season the Virginia League was not blessed with very good weather. However, only on one day, Friday, did the rain break up all of the games. The match between Danville and Portsmouth Saturday was postponed on account of rain.

Red Sox in Pine Form. Leaving Richmond with two defeats and no victories to their credit, the Danville Red Sox got busy last week and won each of the four games played. The Sox are going strong now, and they will give trouble to the best of them. Norfolk played in and out ball all week, showing brilliant form one day and playing lunk-head ball the next. Lynchburg had a disastrous week of it, winning only one of the five games it played. Portsmouth lost every game during the week, but on Tuesday managed to tie the Champions in an eight-round go. Roanoke won three in five games, taking two from Norfolk and one from Richmond.

In the League. The big leagues had a disastrous week, first rain and then snow, breaking up nearly all of the games. The Sox are going strong now, and they will give trouble to the best of them. Norfolk played in and out ball all week, showing brilliant form one day and playing lunk-head ball the next. Lynchburg had a disastrous week of it, winning only one of the five games it played. Portsmouth lost every game during the week, but on Tuesday managed to tie the Champions in an eight-round go. Roanoke won three in five games, taking two from Norfolk and one from Richmond.

The Cincinnati Reds tumbled out of first place last week, and are now in fourth place. The Philadelphia Phillies are leading them. The Philadelphia team is coming strong these days and promises to be a big factor in the race.

Detroit has a strong hold on first place in the American League. The Tigers are going at a fast gait and they will be hard to stop. The Eastern teams may be able to turn the trick, but baseball dopsters are not inclined to believe that they have the strength to dump Jennings' team.

Carolina Sprizes Surprise. North Carolina sprung a surprise on the followers of the University of Virginia baseball team when it defeated the Varsity on Lambeth field, Friday, by a 7 to 6 score. Virginia always has her strongest game on Lambeth field, and therefore the defeat was all the more surprising. The third and deciding game of the series between the two universities will be played at Norfolk this month.

Virginia, defeated Georgetown Saturday, after a rather hard fight of it. Errors in the ninth inning, mixed with a few hits by the Blue and Gray, came very near proving disastrous for the Varsity.

On the Race Tracks. In spite of the rather unfavorable weather, large crowds attended the race meet at Pimlico, and some great sport was seen. The meet has been highly successful from every standpoint.

The annual spring sale of high class horses in Richmond last week attracted much attention. Some fine horses, including racers and blue ribbon winners, were sold. There was a big attendance at the sale, many out-of-town horsemen being present.

Increased interest is being shown in the spring race meet and horse show to be held here on May 15, 17 and 18, and some fine racers and hunters will be entered in the various events.

In the Prize Rings. It was a rather dull week for the prize fighters, only one bout of any prominence being staged. That was in Boston last Tuesday between Sam Langford and Sandy Ferguson. The battle was a ten-round go, and resulted in a tie.

Followers of the prize ring in all parts of the country are still discussing the announcement of a series of fights to be staged in New York City, May 15, 17 and 18, and some fine racers and hunters will be entered in the various events.

New Record for Discus. NEW YORK, May 2.—Martin J. Sheridan, of the Irish-American Athletic Club, made a new record to-day by throwing the Olympic discus, 138 feet 3 inches at the Pastime Athletic Club grounds. The previous record of 134 feet 1 inch was held by W. F. Horr.

RICHMOND COLLEGE BASEBALL TEAM

WILL MEET RANDOLPH-MACON TO-DAY.

SPIDERS TO MEET YELLOW JACKETS

Fast Collegiate Game Is Expected at Broad Street Park To-Day.

The Spiders will meet their old-time rivals, the Yellow Jackets, in Broad Street Park this afternoon at 4:30. This promises to be one of the most interesting college games played here this season.

Richmond and Randolph-Macon play a series of three games this season, Richmond having won the first by the score of 9 to 2. Randolph-Macon claims a reversal of form as an explanation of this score, and as she always puts up her best game on the Broad Street Park diamond, the contest this afternoon will be fast and furious. Both teams are in the pink of condition, and confident of victory.

Last Monday while Randolph-Macon was defeating Hampden-Sidney, the Spiders were taking the measure of the Gellaudet Mutes. Saturday Hampden-Sidney defeated William and Mary. From comparative scores, it appears that the fight for the cup will be between Richmond and Randolph-Macon. Odds seem to be in favor of Richmond. The Spiders have the heaviest hitting team in their history.

The Yellow Jackets have the fastest fielding aggregation that has represented them in years.

Richmond-Macon believes she has a surprise for Richmond in her new pitcher, Smith, who has not lost a game this season. Richmond is relying on Meredith, their star finger. The entire student body from both institutions will be in the bleachers to cheer their teams to victory.

Here is the probable line-up of the teams:

NEW YORK GOSSIP OF SPORTING WORLD

Principal Interest Now Centred in Opening of the Race Tracks.

KENTUCKY DERBY FAVORITE

Abe Attell Can't Fight at Present. Ketchel to Release Manager.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NEW YORK, May 2.—The Westchester Racing Association has made public the full program of stake and overnight races to be run at the coming Belmont Park meeting, which opens on Thursday, May 13. In addition to twenty-two stakes, the gross value of which is more than $50,000, the association has hung up purses ranging in value from $300 to $5,000 in the overnight selling handicaps and special condition races. The schedule calls for ten days of racing on Tuesday's, Thursday's and Saturday's up to and including Wednesday, June 2. On the opening day the stake features are the $50,000 Metropolitan Handicap, one mile, and the New York Steeplechase. On the second day, Saturday, May 15, the features are the Juvenile Stakes, Harlem Stakes, the Belmont Stakes and the Crotona Handicap. On the fourth day, Thursday, May 20, the Norwood, a two-mile stake, and the Belmont Handicap will be featured. The Belmont Handicap will be decided on Saturday, May 22. The stake features on Tuesday, May 25, are the Fashion and the Claremont Handicaps. On Thursday, May 27, the Jockey Club weight feature, the Belmont Handicap, will be featured. The features for Saturday, May 29, the eighth day, are the Pocomtuck and International Steeplechases. On the tenth day, Monday, May 31, when the $10,000 National Stallion Stakes, the Van Cortlandt Handicap and the Grand National Steeplechase will be the star attractions.

On the last day of the meeting, Wednesday, June 2, the $50,000 Belmont Stakes will be featured.

Favorite for Derby.
Rome Respass's Winter Green is the favorite for the Kentucky Derby, to be run at Churchill Downs, Louisville, Monday. Respass says that this colt is a sure winner, barring accident.

Ed. Alvey's Friend Harvey is also worth thought of, while Michael Angelo and Campan are believed to have excellent chances.

Jockey Taplin, who headed the list of winning riders in California during the winter season, which closed recently, may create a sensation on the local tracks this year. He is expected to win the Kentucky Derby.

On the coast he handled seventy-six winners, sixty-nine seconds and seventy-nine thirds, and was unplaced with 225 mounts. He is an excellent judge of pace and can put up a vigorous finish. He is fearless, and is a natural horseman. He will scale at less than 170 pounds the next time he enters the ring.

Manager McGraw of the Giants, says that he is saving the colt for the warm weather. From other sources it is learned that Mathewson has been suffering from a cold, and is a suitor for the force of a flying bat which struck the famous pitcher on the opening day at the Polo Grounds.

Mathewson is said to have signed a contract some time ago.

"The Circus Girl" This Week.
The Page-Benjamin Company will begin the second week of the stock exchange at the Academy, with another comedy, "The Circus Girl."

"Mrs. Temple's Telegram" proved such a good opening bill, much is expected of the second week's offering, for it is said to be even better and more popular than the first.

Mr. Wynt's delightful comedy, Miss Carroll McComas will be seen in the title role, in which she is given opportunities to both sing and dance. Miss Mabel Freyner, whose personal charms and play a most important character.

PUBLIC AUCTION SALE
THE GOODMAN ESTATE, CONSISTING OF

Four Franklin Street Residences.
BETWEEN SEVENTH AND EIGHTH, AND

Ninth and Cary Street Business Corner Property.

THURSDAY, MAY 6, 1909, 1 O'CLOCK P. M.

By authority of the heirs of Thomas Goodman, who sold at public auction, on the premises, at the above time and date, that most desirable central business property, with several nice frame houses, containing for $300 per annum; good tax-payers; on the southwest corner Ninth and Cary Streets, fronting on Cary 12.5 feet, and on the south line of 40 feet fronting on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway.

AT 2 O'CLOCK P. M.
We will sell residences Nos. 708, 710, 712 and 714, East Franklin Street. Nos. 708, 710 and 712 are three stuccoed mansard residences, containing 10 rooms each, and front together on North line of Franklin Street 78 feet, more or less, with a depth of 90 feet, more or less, to an alley 15 feet wide. These three houses will be offered separately and then offered together, and by whichever mode of offering the highest price is secured the property will be knocked out.

AT 3:30 P. M.
The residence No. 718, north line of Franklin, between Seventh and Eighth. This is a fine and most substantially built three-story and basement, detached brick residence, with granite trimmings, containing ten or more rooms, and fronting 25 feet, more or less, with depth 100, more or less, to an alley 15 feet wide—admirably adapted for a physician's office and home, and for other purposes.

These residences are very valuable, because of the close proximity to large, costly and substantial business buildings, and for other reasons, making this location the very centre and cream of cross-town business property. The new office building being erected in the immediate front of this property renders all this property very valuable for office purposes.

TERMS: One-third cash, and balance in two equal installments at six and twelve months, the purchaser to give negotiable notes for deferred payments, with interest at 5 per cent, per annum, and the title to be retained, or all cash, at the option of the purchaser.
